MAKE THEM SO STRONG YOU WILL BE PROUD TO SHOW YOUR FRIENDS HOW FULL OF STRENGTH YOU ARE! IN JUST TEN MINUTES A DAY—WITH ABSOLUTELY NO WEIGHTS, NO BAR BELLS, NO FORMAL LONG EXERCISES AT ALL!! (MAKES GLADIATOR MUSCLES TO A GLADIATOR JOB)

"Yes if the girls laugh at you now when you try doing anything that requires strength—toned up muscles—they will be amazed, astonished, with the strength and strong men things you will be able to do after you master the DYNAFLEX METHOD! You will be so proud of the feats of strength you will be able to do, of the increased power in every one of your muscles" says Mike Marvel, Master of toning and putting strength into muscles!

Pal—do yourself a favor . . . Try your muscles and see if they are as strong as you would like them to be. Can you lift as much as you really should be able to? Are you ashamed of your muscle strength? Believe it or not I can increase your muscle tone . . . add strength to your muscles . . . improve your ability to display your new found BIG MUSCLE STRENGTH [illegible] ght at how strong you have become, at how easily you perform things that require muscle tone—rength [illegible]—that [illegible] you ha[illegible] you!

Dynaflex is the amazing discovery of a West German Doctor whose research into the science of Strength found a thrilling new way to tone muscles . . . build strength into your muscles. HERE ARE THE KIND OF TESTIMONIALS YOU WILL WANT TO WRITE AFTER YOU MASTER DYNAFLEX

"I never thought you can really tone my muscles and make them so strong, without long periods of exercise or weight lifting. Dynaflex has truly amazed me.

Every summer it seemed to be the same old story—I don't like to admit it's but I was pretty much a weak and maybe even a sissy and everybody at the beach could tell at a glance. But now with Mike Marvel's [illegible] Dynaflex [illegible]

"A RIOTOUS ROUND-UP OF RIDICULOUS RUMORS AND RABELAISIAN REPORTS!"

ITEM! It's time to play artistic musical chairs again! We were all rapping in the Bullpen the other day and a few of our peerless pencil-pushers were mentioning various strips they'd like to draw. So, we thought it would be a kick to make a switcheroo or two and see what happens. Here's how it all came out. Starting with ish #107, the fabulous FANTASTIC FOUR will be drawn by the Big Man himself, none other than JOHN BUSCEMA! Meanwhile, ol' RING-A-DING ROMITA, who's been pining for his favorite strip, will once again take over the artistic reins of SPIDER-MAN — at least until the next switch-over session. However, the adorable AVENGERS won't be completely Buscema-less 'cause John's brother SAL BUSCEMA will replace J.B. in drawing the most super-hero-filled spectaculars of all. Y'know, it just occurs to us, we oughtta publish scorecards — 'cause here at mixed-up Marvel, you can't tell who's doing what without one!

ITEM! We sure hope you caught SPIDEY'S recent ish #92 — the one featuring ICEMAN. The reason we mention it is that our chilly little cherub was such a smash hit in that yarn that we've been toying with the idea of giving Iceman a strip of his own. So, as soon as we can find an artist and writer who can stand the temperature (ouch!), don't be too surprised—!

ITEM! We may not be the biggest staff in the world, but we sure are becoming the most widely travelled! Every time we turn around, it seems that one of our guys or gals is either heading overseas or just returning from there. As these portentous words are being penned, RASCALLY ROY THOMAS has just completed a three-weeks sojourn in Great Britain; and even as he headed back to the welcoming Bullpen, JUMBO JOHNNY VERPOORTEN, our demon penciller, inker, and brand-new production chief, just started winging his way towards a vacation in West Germany! (We kinda hope he remembered to take a plane!) Then, exactly five minutes ago, GENIAL GENE COLAN phoned to tell us he's leaving for Europe in a couple of days — if CAPTAIN AMERICA and DARE DEVIL can spare him for a while. But don't worry, we know he'll be back soon — we scared him by saying that HONEST IRVING FORBUSH has been practicing drawing both those strips — and you know what a threat ol' Irv can be!

ITEM! Speaking of overseas voyagers, BASHFUL BARRY SMITH has finally completed arrangements to emigrate from England and make little old New York his home. We're pleased as punch with this new development, especially since it seems that Barry's newest mag, CONAN THE BARBARIAN, promises to be one of the biggest comic magazine smash hits of the decade. So who can blame us for not wanting to let this young, talented Britisher out of our sight?

ITEM! We try to make it a point not to plug any of our titles too enthusiastically on this page, because these are supposed to be news items rather than hard sell ads. However, once in a great while a magazine comes along which is so special, so unusually exciting, that we just have to tell you about it. Such a mag is THOR #104, featuring the saga of "The World Beyond!" It introduces a whole new concept in far-out fantasy, and brings you such mysterious characters as The Silent One, and — Infinity! We predict that this issue will create as much of a stir as the FANTASTIC FOUR created years ago when it first introduced the uncanny Inhumans. The art work by BIG JOHN BUSCEMA is just not to be believed — and STAN THE MAN'S script — well, it's somethin' else! Okay, that's the end of the plug — you know how we hate to brag!

ITEM! Remember some months ago when we tried a little experiment? We wrote an entire SPIDER-MAN story without using exclamation points — except where they were really needed. We wanted to see if the exclamation points were really necessary insofar as giving a comic strip that certain feeling of excitement. Well, apparently there aren't that many punctuation buffs among you, because we didn't receive as much mail as we expected about this earth shattering subject. Just a few letters straggled in, mostly telling us that it didn't make much difference whether we used the exclamation points or not. So, instead of making a major policy change, we'll leave this monumental matter to the discretion of each individual writer — and that takes care of that.

STAN LEE'S SOAPBOX

One thing we've always promised to do is level with you. After all, you're both our reader, and our friend — and no one is more deserving of being taken into our confidence. Therefore, we want to give you the straight scoop as to why the SILVER SURFER is no longer being published. In a nutshell, we had to drop it — 'cause it was losing money! But as you may guess, there's a bit more to the story than that. Actually, the Surfer was one of our biggest successes from the standpoint of reader acceptance. Those who bought it were fanatical about it. The silvery sky rider became an almost immediate sensation on campuses thruout the free world. Announcers on FM radio stations began to quote from the stories and to read portions of them over the air. The Surfer's philosophical musings were actually discussed in pulpits thruout the nation. Truly, we had succeeded in our goal — we had created a comic book for the older reader, for the more literate, more perceptive, more cognizant fan. But, in so doing, the Surfer's exploits were too far over the heads of many of our younger readers, and for that reason, we lost a great many sales, since no comic magazine can be financially successful unless it sells to young and old alike. Finally, we realized there were only two choices — drop the magazine, change the format so that it would be more acceptable to the younger reader. Rather than compromise our own integrity, or be untrue to our own objectives, we have chosen to discontinue the magazine. Needless to say, your own comments and opinions on this matter will be very much appreciated.

Onward!

Stan

Norman Rockwell—America's most beloved artist. He is a founder and member of the Guiding Faculty of the Famous Artists School.

'We're looking for people who like to draw'

says Norman Rockwell

Today hundreds of men and women who never thought they could be artists are working at easels and drawing boards, making pictures and getting well paid for it. They all can thank a group of famous artists who have devoted much of their time and talent to helping others find success in art.

Some of the people the Famous Artists have helped

Donald Ward enrolled at FAS when he was a teenager and today works in the largest advertising agency in Akron, Ohio. His portfolio of work was enough to get him a job on a staff of 6 artists.

Homer Collins, of Albany, Ga., left a job in an insurance company to work as an artist for a local printer. Now he owns his own studio and makes good money while doing something he enjoys.

Paul Sullivan enrolled at 14. His Famous Artists training helped him work his way through college.

Kathleen Gironda of Indiana, Pennsylvania, was an 18-year-old salesgirl in a department store. She still works for a department store, but now it's as an advertising artist and fashion illustrator.

Robert Rouge, of Port Jefferson, N. Y., was 18 when he started as a paste-up boy in a small ad agency. In 10 months he doubled his salary and was put in charge of one of the accounts.

Oregon housewife Helen Tryk lives 150 miles from the nearest big city. But she does fashion illustration, has her own studio, runs an art work shop, does portraits.

A plan to help others

It started over 18 years ago when a group of America's most successful artists—men like Albert Dorne, Norman Rockwell, Jon Whitcomb, Al Parker and Stevan Dohanos—met in New York City. They knew that all over America there were people who liked to draw who could be turned into good artists. Albert Dorne asked, "Why can't we give these people the training they need—including all the trade secrets and know-how we've learned over the years?"

He suggested a new kind of art school—a home study art school—that would give talented people the best professional art training, no matter where they live.

The famous artists agreed. Taking time from their busy careers, they created a remarkable series of art lessons covering every aspect of drawing and painting. They illustrated their lessons with over 5,000 "here's-how" illustrations. The lessons start from scratch and cover every skill a top artist needs. Finally, they developed a wonderful way to give each student personal correction and advice all through his training.

The famous artists with the School are not surprised at the success of their students. The opportunities open to successful artists today are enormous. The School continually gets calls from all over the country asking for practical well-trained students—not geniuses—who can step into full-time or part-time art jobs. And practical, thorough training is what the School offers.

Famous Artists Talent Test

To find others with art talent worth developing, the Famous Artists created a 12-page Talent Test. Thousands paid to take this test, but now the School offers and grades it free. Men and women who do well on the test—or offer other sufficient evidence of art talent—may enroll in the School. But there's no obligation. Simply mail the coupon below.
